INSTITUTE FOR HOLOCAUST EDUCATION

Essay Planning Outline

Introduction

- Your definition of moral courage:
- Person 1
- Person 2
- How are they alike/connected?

Body

- Person 1
    - Example(s) of their moral courage:
    - Explain why this matters. What should we do now with this information?
    - How has this inspired/impacted you:
        - How might the lessons of your chosen example be applied in your own life, school, or family?

- Person 2
    - Example(s) of their moral courage:
    - Explain why this matters. What should we do now with this information?
    - How has this inspired/impacted you:
        - How might the lessons of your chosen example be applied in your own life, school, or family?

Conclusion

- Restatement of how the two people are alike:
- What did you learn from these two examples?
- How might the lessons of your chosen example be applied in your own life, school, or family?
- How can these lessons impact your life and those around you?
- What challenges have you faced that you have had to use moral courage?
- What challenges have family members or friends in which they have had to use moral courage?